

Member-at-Large Report of Ashley Cederwall
Public Service Alliance of Canada (PSAC)
National Capital Region (NCR) Regional Executive

For the Period of April 1 - July 31, 2016

I was elected May 8, 2016 for a term of two years.

Labour Engagement

- I continued my engagement with the launch of the PSAC-NCR Reading Circle in June. The following events were held in June and July, respectively:
  - Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada Final Report Summary
  - Time for Outrage by Stéphane Hessel
- PSAC-NCR Reading Circle events will continue to be held monthly.
- I continued my engagement with the PSAC-CAPE Reignite: Policy and Labour Learning Series, as a member of the coordinating committee and as an event attendee. The PSAC-CAPE Reignite Committee coordinated four speaker events over the period of April to July:
  - How We Can Improve Pensions for All Workers – Canadian Union of Public Employees
  - Against the Sharing Economy book launch at Octopus Books
  - Our Place in the Broader Labour Movement – Canadian Labour Congress
- I continued to sit on the PSAC-NCR Regional Education Committee.
- I attended my first PSAC NCR Regional Executive meeting in June. There, I spoke on the PSAC-NCR Reading Circle and invited collaboration on the initiative from the group.

Community Engagement

- I wrote an article for my neighbourhood newspaper, the Glebe Report, on a community park cleanup event, with the intent to promote volunteerism and community engagement.
- I attended community events and engaged with attendees on union topics.
