SECTION 1 – NAME

Pursuant to Section 16 of the Public Service Alliance of Canada (PSAC) Constitution, the organization of the PSAC in the National Capital Region (NCR) shall be known as the PSAC National Capital Region Council (PSAC NCRC or the Council).

SECTION 2 – AIMS, MANDATE, OBJECTIVES

2.1 Preamble

WHEREAS the PSAC NCRC is committed to uniting all of its members in the NCR in a single democratic organization which benefits all;

WHEREAS the PSAC NCRC recognizes that its members are represented by unions certified under various legislative authorities, including federal/provincial legislative authorities including the Canada Labour Code, the Ontario Labour Code, the Québec Labour Code, the Parliamentary Employees Staff Relations Act and the Public Service Labour Relations Act and that all voices and specific concerns must be heard in the Council structure;

WHEREAS the PSAC NCRC recognizes that its members experience the world differently depending on their gender and/or linguistic backgrounds and have historically been disadvantaged in the union and in other domains for reasons based on of gender and language;

WHEREAS the PSAC NCRC recognizes that members who experience intersecting or multiple grounds of discrimination based on their age, sex, colour, national or ethnic origin, race, religion, marital status, family status, criminal record, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, language, political belief, social and economic class or employer and other factors cannot separate their struggle as workers from other campaigns for justice in which they are engaged;

IT IS HEREBY DECLARED THAT the PSAC NCRC will:

- a) attempt to achieve the full representation on the PSAC NCRC of all Locals and Branches taking into account their certification process;
- b) strive to achieve the equal representation of women and men on the PSAC NCRC and, if necessary, will incorporate special measures to ensure the full and equal participation of women in the PSAC NCRC;
- c) strive to create an environment in which both official linguistic groups are recognized and linguistic rights are respected. To this end, every other meeting of the PSAC NCRC and NCRC Executive should be chaired alternately in English and in French;

- d) recognize and support the equality-seeking groups advocated for by the PSAC.

2.2 Objectives

- a) To implement an efficient communications structure among all PSAC members and locals throughout the NCR; and
- b) provide for a PSAC structure in the NCR that reflects the complex needs and reality of the NCR while respecting the constitutional integrity of the PSAC.

SECTION 3 – LANGUAGE

Both English and French shall be the languages of the PSAC NCRC and the NCRC Executive. To this end:

- a) simultaneous translation in both official languages will be provided at all meetings of the PSAC NCRC and its Executive; and,

- b) all formal/official documents of the PSAC NCRC and its Executive will be made available in both official languages.

SECTION 4 – ACCESS

The PSAC NCRC and its Executive are to be inclusive to all members and guests and to that end will:

- a) Upon request, or known requirements, all official documentation of all meetings and events will be provided in alternate format (which may include electronic);
- b) All meetings and events will be held in accessible locations;
- c) Upon request, or known requirements, sound amplification equipment designed for use with hearing devices, such as hearing aids, will be provided for use at meetings and events;
- d) Upon request, or known requirements, sign language interpretation will be provided at meetings and events;
- e) Upon request, or known requirements, any ergonomic equipment required to allow Persons with Disabilities to fully participate in meetings and events will be provided or accommodated;
- f) Upon request, or known requirements, all meetings and events will be organised taking into consideration allergies and dietary restrictions of the participants;
- g) Upon request, or known requirements, Persons with Disabilities may freely stand and move about at any meetings and events; and,
- h) Upon request, or known requirements, Members who pre self identify to appropriate PSAC staff members, may leave and/or enter any meetings where the doors are tiled.

SECTION 5 – DEFINITIONS

- a) “NCR Local” means a Local, Directly Chartered Local (DCL) or Branch with the majority of its members working in the NCR.
- b) “NCR Component Regional Officer” means an elected Component Regional Officer who is a resident of or works in the NCR and the majority of whose member jurisdiction works in the NCR; or a Component Regional Officer who is a resident of or works in the NCR, represents a large number of members in the NCR, and has chosen, within three months after the Founding Meeting or three months after NCR members become a minority of her/his jurisdiction, to participate in the NCR Council rather than another Regional Council; or a Component Regional Officer who is a resident of or works in the NCR, whose NCR members are a minority of his/her jurisdiction, and who chooses within three months of his/her election to participate in the NCR Council.

HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEES

- c) Aboriginal Action Circle (AAC) is a committee of PSAC members in the NCR who seeks to assist the PSAC, the NCRC and Locals in carrying out the actions outlined in the PSAC Statement of Principles on Aboriginal Peoples' Rights.
- d) Members with Disabilities Action Committee (MDAC) is a committee who welcomes members with disabilities, whether physical, sensory or psycho-social, either permanent or temporary in duration. The purpose of the committee is to ensure that PSAC members with disabilities are given the opportunity to participate fully in their union and in their workplace.
- e) Racially Visible Action Committee (RVAC) is a committee who provides a forum for racially visible members to focus on the elimination of discrimination, harassment and racism.
- f) Pride is a committee of PSAC members in the NCR (Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender) whose vision is to work together for the community.
- g) Ottawa Regional Women's Committee (ORWC) is a committee who provides women in the PSAC-NCR a meeting place where they can discuss, work collectively and organize activities aimed at promoting the defence of women's rights. The ORWC operates entirely in English.

- h) Comité régional des femmes francophones (CRFF) is a committee who provides women in the PSAC-NCR a meeting place where they can discuss, work collectively and organize activities aimed at promoting the defence of women's rights. The CRFF operates solely in French.

POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEES

- i) Ottawa Area Council (OAC) is a committee who raise awareness on issues affecting our members, workers and the Canadian public such as workers' rights and social justice. Members also participate in awareness activities with politicians led by the PSAC. The OAC works on the Ontario side of the PSAC-NCR.
- j) Conseil Régional d'action politique de l'Outaouais (CRAPO) is a committee who raise awareness of issues affecting our members, workers and the Canadian public such as workers' rights and social justice. Members also participate in awareness activities with politicians led by the PSAC. The CRAPO works on the Quebec side of the PSAC-NCR.

OUTREACH AND MEMBER ENGAGEMENT COMMITTEES

- k) Education is a committee who plays an active role in developing the PSAC-NCR Education Program. The Committee discusses union education needs, determines how the region should respond to these needs and finds ways of engaging members through union education.
- l) Health and Safety (H&SC) is a committee who promotes health and safety awareness and activism in our region by equipping members to contribute to the creation and to the preservation of healthy and safe work environments
- m) Communications Committee is a committee of PSAC members in the NCR who provides recommendations to the NCRC Executive and its regional committees on communications issues. The Committee also provides support to Locals and to PSAC campaigns.

- n) Young Workers Committee (YWC) is a committee of PSAC members who educate young workers about the labour movement; engage, mobilize and retain young workers. The committee also raises awareness on a series of issues that young workers face today. Members of this committee are 35 years of age and underaged.

- o) Men's Action Support Committee (MASC) is a committee of PSAC members in the NCR who is committed to pursuing social justice issues from a union perspective in our community. While the primary focus of the committee's activities may be on men and issues particular to men, meetings are open to all.

SECTION 6 – MEMBERSHIP RIGHTS

Every member in good standing as defined in Section 5 of the PSAC Constitution is entitled:

- a) to be represented by the union;
- b) to be free from any act or omission on the part of the union, or other members, that would discriminate against the member on the basis of age, sex, colour, national or ethnic origin, race, religion, marital status, family status, criminal record, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, language, political belief, social and economic class or employer and other factors;
- c) to be free from harassment by another member, both within the union and in the workplace on the basis of any of the grounds mentioned in paragraph (b); and
- d) to be nominated for and hold elected office in the region subject to any qualifications stipulated elsewhere in the PSAC Constitution and these By-Laws;
- e) to participate in the official language of their choice at all regional functions in keeping with the Constitution of the PSAC.

SECTION 7 – STRUCTURE OF THE NCRC

7.1 National Capital Region Council

- f) the appointment of interim Executive members in case of vacancies that cannot be filled by alternates.

g) each member of the Executive shall provide a written activities report for the previous year at the AGM.

8.3 Treasurer

The Treasurer will be elected in accordance with Section 15.2. The Treasurer shall:

- a) Present a draft annual budget to the first PSAC NCRC meeting of the year for approval;
- b) Present a current financial statement to each meeting of the PSAC NCRC and its Executive; and
- c) Present an audited financial statement for the previous fiscal year to the PSAC NCRC AGM for approval.

8.4 Alternate Treasurer

The alternate Treasurer shall be elected at the first PSAC NCRC Executive meeting following the PSAC NCRC AGM, from amongst the Executive members. In the absence or resignation of the Treasurer, the alternate shall assume the responsibilities of the Treasurer.

SECTION 9 – COMMITTEES

- a) The PSAC NCRC Executive shall have the authority and the responsibility for establishing operational/standing committees of Council.
- b) The PSAC NCRC recognizes and supports the existence of the NCR Committees as defined in Section 5 of these Bylaws.
- c) The PSAC NCRC shall elect a Standing Finance Committee in accordance with the procedures in Section 15.2.

SECTION 10 – FINANCES AND COLLECTION OF MEMBERSHIP DUES

- a) The PSAC NCRC shall be funded, among other sources, from the budget allocated by the PSAC to the NCR and from any membership dues levied on participating Locals (including DCLs) and Branches.
- b) Any determination of dues by the PSAC NCRC pursuant to Section 16, Subsection 2 of the PSAC Constitution will require a two-thirds majority vote of the delegates present at an AGM.
- c) A notice of motion must be given at any PSAC NCRC meeting preceding an AGM for any dues levied.
- d) The fiscal year of the PSAC NCRC shall be from January 1 to December 31 and all financial records shall be retained for seven years.
- e) Ratification of the annual budget requires a two-thirds majority vote of the delegates present at the PSAC NCRC.
- f) The PSAC NCRC Executive shall have the authority to spend up to $2,000.00 on any unbudgeted expense. Such expenditures shall require a 2/3 majority vote.
- g) An annual attest audit shall be conducted on the PSAC NCRC revenues and expenditures in March of each year, by an independent certified auditor. The auditor shall be chosen at first PSAC NCRC meeting of the year.
- h) The Standing Finance Committee or any PSAC NCRC delegate can recommend a forensic audit to Council at any time. A 50% majority shall be required to accept such a recommendation.

10.1 Signing Authority

The REVP-RCN, the Treasurer and one more person designated by the PSAC NCRC Executive will constitute the authorized signing authority for the PSAC NCRC. Two of these three signatures shall be required on all disbursements.

SECTION 11 – REMOVAL FROM OFFICE/DISCIPLINE

- a) In accordance with PSAC Constitution, Section 25 and Regulation 19, NCRC Executive will forward: disciplinary findings, recommendations and reports to the appropriate PSAC bodies responsible for application of discipline.
- b) Upon application, the PSAC NCRC or its Executive may authorize a leave of absence for cause.

SECTION 12 – AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS

- a) Any amendment of, deletion from or addition to these By-Laws shall become effective by approval of two-thirds (2/3) of the delegates voting at the AGM of the PSAC NCRC.
- b) Unless otherwise specified, any amendment of, deletion from or addition to these By-Laws shall become effective at the time of its adoption.

SECTION 13 – REGULATIONS

The PSAC NCRC Executive shall have the authority to make such policies and regulations as are necessary for the administration of the affairs of the PSAC NCRC provided such policies and regulations do not conflict with these By-Laws or with the Constitution of the PSAC.

SECTION 14 – PSAC NCRC MEETINGS

14.1 The PSAC NCRC shall:

- a) hold its AGM in the Spring (Apr-May-June) of each year; and
- b) elect the treasurer, members at large, alternate members at large and separate employers and DCL representatives.

14.2 The PSAC NCRC meetings shall:

- a) be chaired by the REVP-NCR, or, in his/her absence, by the AREVP-NCR
- b) adopt rules of procedure governing the processing of all matters before it;
- c) deal with all resolutions and matters submitted to it by the Locals, DCLs, Branches, regional committees as defined in Section 5 of these Bylaws;
- d) deal with any administrative matter placed before it by the delegates, in the manner prescribed by the procedural rules adopted by the PSAC NCRC meeting for the orderly conduct of its business.

14.3 The AGM of the PSAC NCRC held in the year preceding the PSAC National Triennial Convention shall:

- a) be designated as the Triennial Regional Convention of the NCRC, to elect the REVP-NCR and AREVP-NCR, and to adopt resolutions to be forwarded to the PSAC National Triennial Convention;
- b) allow all NCR Regional Officers and National Officers who have elected the NCR as their place of residence to register as voting delegates.

SECTION 15 – REPRESENTATION AND VOTING AT THE PSAC NCRC MEETINGS

15.1 Eligibility for Office

To be eligible for office, a nominee must be a member in good standing of the PSAC and must be resident of or work in the NCR. A nominator and a seconder must be duly accredited delegates at the meeting at which elections are held. In the event that a member is not present at the meeting at which elections are held, but wishes to be nominated, he or she must have indicated in writing their willingness to stand.

Nominees for the office of the REVP-NCR shall be prepared to live in a location as determined by the AEC.

15.2 Election of Officers

- a) A Nominations Committee of at least three (3) persons shall be appointed by the PSAC NCRC from among those present, other than staff.
- b) The duties of the Nominations Committee shall be:
  - i) to receive nominations for the offices of REVP and AREVP and to receive nominations for the positions of Treasurer, the six (6) at-large members and alternates;
  - ii) to verify the eligibility of the nominees for office;
  - iii) to ascertain the willingness of the nominees to accept and perform the duties of office to which they may be elected; and
  - iv) to report to the Triennial Regional Convention or the PSAC NCRC AGM the names of all such nominees.
- c) Nominations for all positions, excluding those mentioned in Section 7.1.1(a)(viii) and of these By-Laws, shall be filed with the Nominations Committee in writing, signed by a nominator and a seconder, each of whom shall be an accredited delegate. Nominations can also be received from the floor.
  - i. Nominees for REVP and AREVP who are not present at the Convention must submit a nomination form to the PSAC Regional Coordinator prior to the start of the Regional Convention.

- ii. Nominees for REVP and AREVP who are present at the Regional Convention can submit a nomination form to the Regional Coordinator prior to the start of the Regional Convention to the Nominations Committee during Convention or be nominated from the floor of the Regional Convention. The Regional Coordinator will provide nomination forms received prior to the commencement of Convention to the Chair of the Nominations Committee as soon as the Nomination Committee has been ratified by Convention.

- d) The Chairperson of the Nominations Committee shall be appointed by the PSAC NCRC. The elections shall be conducted by either the Chairperson of the Nominations Committee or by a member or former member of the PSAC invited by the PSAC NCRC executive. The Chairperson shall conduct the election of officers and shall have the power to appoint scrutineers and assistants to conduct elections in an orderly fashion subject to the limitations of 15.2.a above.

- e) Elections shall be conducted in the following order: the REVP, followed by the alternate REVP, the Treasurer followed by the three (3) members-at-large, followed by the three(3) alternates, three members of the Standing Finance Committee. Each office shall be called in turn and completed before the next office is called.

- f) The nominee, or someone chosen by the nominee, may speak for not more than three (3) minutes on behalf of the nominee.

- g) The election to each office shall be by secret ballot in accordance with Section 23 (Subsections 8, 9 and 10) of the PSAC Constitution.

- h) Election to the office of REVP and AREVP shall be declared only on receipt of a clear majority of the ballots cast with standings revealed to voting delegates after each ballot. In the event that more than two (2) nominees stand for election to any one office, the election procedure shall be by the way of elimination.

- i) In the event of a tie vote, the Chairperson shall immediately take a second ballot without recess or adjournment. If this results in a second tie vote, the Chairperson shall call a short recess before taking the third ballot.

- j) Upon completion of the election of the REVP and AREVP, the Nominations Committee will sign a declaration outlining the number of accredited delegates, the number of accredited delegates voting, the vote tally for each candidate, and the number of spoiled ballots for each ballot during the election of the REVP. The signed declaration will be forwarded to the PSAC National President and maintained on file.
- k) The REVP and the AREVP shall take office at the end of the NCR Triennial Regional Convention.
- l) Members elected to the position of REVP shall not hold Component, Local or Branch Executive Officer positions other than steward.
- m) Members elected to the PSAC NCRC Executive shall hold only one position on the Executive.

15.3 Submission of Resolutions

- a) The PSAC NCRC Executive shall establish a Resolutions Committee(s) of NCRC members to deal with all resolutions.
- b) Resolutions may be submitted by the PSAC NCRC and its Executive, NCR Committees as defined in Section 5 of these Bylaws and locals of the NCR.
- c) Resolutions are to be submitted six weeks prior to any PSAC NCRC meeting. Resolutions received after this cut-off shall be considered late resolutions.
- d) Emergency resolutions shall be presented to the meeting Chair for referral to the Resolutions Committee, who shall determine whether the resolution treats a situation which was not known at the time of the original call for resolutions. The assembled delegates will be asked to vote on the acceptance of an emergency resolution.
- e) A motion to refer must be made to forward to the PSAC NCRC Executive any resolutions not dealt with at any meeting of the PSAC NCRC

SECTION 16 – OATH OF OFFICE

"I _____, having been elected an officer of the PSAC National Capital Region Council, solemnly declare that for my term of office I shall abide by and uphold the NCRC By-Laws and the Constitution of the Public Service Alliance of Canada, fulfill the duties of such office, will maintain and uphold the dignity of the Union and will always keep confidential all matters concerning the affairs of the Union that are brought to my attention."

REGULATIONS TO THE BY-LAWS OF THE PSAC NCRC

REGULATION 1 – RULES OF ORDER

The PSAC NCRC will follow the PSAC Rules of Order and will abide by Regulation 12 of the PSAC Constitution, with the following exceptions:

- a) speeches shall be limited to three minutes;
- b) a vote by secret ballot shall be taken only on a substantive motion at the request of one-third of the delegates present;
- c) one-third of the delegates at the PSAC NCRC meeting may request, and have ordered, a recorded vote. Upon receiving such a request, the Chairperson shall require the calling of the roll and record the names of those delegates voting in the affirmative and in the negative. Once the Chairperson has called the question, it shall not be in order to request a recorded vote;
- d) election of officers shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the PSAC NCRC By-Laws.

REGULATION 2 – COMMITTEES

- a) The PSAC NCRC Executive will establish the mandate and terms of reference, including reporting structure, for any operational and/or standing committee it establishes subject to the PSAC NCRC Bylaws.
- b) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), the equality-seeking committees recognized in the PSAC NCRC Bylaws shall have the authority to establish their own mandates and terms of reference.
- c) A list of committees of the PSAC NCRC will be published annually along with a list of committee contacts.
- d) Finance Committee:
